By car

On entering Budapest, take the outside left lane and drive towards Petőfi híd – this will take you to Nagyszőlős utca. Drive along Nagyszőlős utca (for at least 5 traffic lights) and turn left on Bartók Béla utca at a big crossroads after a sharp right-hand bend. Drive straight on Bartók Béla utca until you reach Gellért Square (you will see the big Hotel Gellért on your left and just opposite the hotel there is a green bridge). Take the right lane and drive over the bridge. After the bridge, you will already be driving on Vámház krt. The house number 13 is on the right, shortly before Lónyai utca.

You should be able to find a parking place in the garage of Hotel Mercure Korona in Kecskeméti utca. In order to get there, drive until the end of Vámház krt., which leads directly onto Kálvin Square. On Kálvin Square, turn left on Kecskeméti utca. The hotel is the first building on the right. Immediately after the hotel, there is a small side street on the right, leading to the garage.
